344—CALLE PIEDAD—344.
Mons. LOUDET,

Begs to inform the Public of Buenos Ayres and the Argentine Republic, that he continues to take Photographs for the Carte de Visite, full length, and in every other style.

Mons. Loudet visited the Great Exhibition of Paris in 1867, in order to make himself, thoroughly and practically acquainted with every improvement in the above important art; and, since his return from Europe, he has placed his Establishment on precisely the same footing as those of the first Photographers in Paris, London, and the principal cities of Europe. The Apparatus, has been selected from the most approved of those in the Paris Exhibition, several of the inventions having received Prize Medals, among which may be mentioned those of Dallmeyer, of Loudon, &c.

Voigtlander e Sohn. The saloons [in which may be included the Atelier] are handsomely furnished and commodious.

Mons. LOUDET feels the most perfect confidence in saying he can produce likenesses in every aspect, infinitely superior to those which have already met with such unbounded approbation from the distinguished Public of Buenos Ayres.

The Public are respectfully invited to inspect the Gallery. 98,f16

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

TRANSITORY PERFUMES—The overpowering European perfumes are as transient as they are strong and pungent. Bah! what a nauseous odor they leave as a legacy when the first fragrance passes off. The best of them do not compare with Murray and Lanman's Florida Water, which is characterised by a delicacy and freshness belonging to no other article of its kind. It is literally the aromatic principle of the rarest blossoms of the land of the camellia, the orange, and the magnolia, fixed and intensified in the purest spirits. This cannot be said of any other toilet water, not even of the best Rhenish cologne, of which an essential oil is one of the components. Murray and Lanman's Floriday Water [be sure and ask for Murray and Lanman's, for there are counterfeits in the market] is the only perufme that can be pronounced absolutely perfect.

VALENTIN ALSINA.

One of the most prominent figures of Argentine contemporaneous history has been gathered to his fathers, surrounded by the imperishable glory which a long life of unswerving and disinterested patriotism, and of loyal sacrifices to the noble cause of justice and liberty, will ever make dear to the heart of every true Argentine the venerable name of Valentine Alsina.

The distinguished patriot whose loss it is our mournful duty to record to-day, was born in Buenos Ayres in the year 1802, and was consequently in his sixty-seventh year. Having embraced the career of a lawyer, he early distinguished himself for his honesty of purpose, his indomitable devotion to the liberal cause, and intellectual capacities of no ordinary stamp.

His defence of Col. Rojas earned him the ill-will of Rosas, who thought he saw in the young advocate a stumbling-block in his path, and a dread avenger of the barbarous murder of Dr. Maza, whose daughter was married to Dr. Alsina. It was principally owing to the courageous devotion of this noble woman, that Dr. Alsina effected his escape to Montevideo, where he took an active part in the armed resistance which that city carried on so successfully against the tyrant Oribe. On the death of Florencio Varela by the assassin's dagger, Dr. Alsina assumed his place, and fulfilled his austere mission, regardless of the dangers that surrounded him, and with eminent success.

On the fall of Rosas, Dr. Alsina returned to his native city, was appointed—first, Minister of the Provisional Government—and then elected Governor. He shortly afterwards resigned, but in 1857 he was re-elected to the same post, and occupied it until the Battle of Cepeda, when a deputation of the Chambers requested his resignation, thinking that his presence in the government might be a disturbing cause in the arrangements that were the subjects of negotiation with General Urquiza.

After the National reconstruction and the reincorporation of Buenos Ayres to the seat of the Confederation, Alsina was unanimously elected Senator for Buenos Ayres—a post which he retained until his last hour.

He had been ailing for some time past, and his death—which occurred on Monday, at 3, P.M.—was not altogether unexpected. The news of the sad event was conveyed to the National Deputies whilst they were holding a sitting; and, as soon as it was communicated by the President, Dr. Quintana, Dr. Montes de Oca moved that the House should attend his funeral, which was agreed to nem. con.—Mr Marmol also moved that a portrait of the illustrious deceased, painted in oil, should be ordered at the expense of the nation, and placed in Congress Hall. This motion was also unanimously passed.

His funeral caused yesterday a deep sensation in our population. At the appointed hour of three in the afternoon, the neighborhood of his late residence in Calle Potosi, between Lima and Salta, was the scene of great stir and excitement. Calle Potosi and the adjacent streets were lined with carriages, and the side pavements crowded with people going to pay their last duty of respect to the deceased, and the infallible concourse of curious idlers. At about half-past three the coffin was placed in the hearse. The chief mourners accompanied it on foot as far as the Cathedral. First went the deceased's son, Dr. D. Adolfo Alsina supported on his right by the Rev. Father O'Gorman, and his near relatives and intimate friends. President Sarmiento together with Governor Castro came next, and they were followed by the National and Provincial Ministers, the members of both Houses of Congress and of the Provincial Legislature, the Judicial Body, the Lord Mayor and the members of the Municipality, the Bank Directors, a number of Generals and Field officers and almost every person of note in our native circles.

The empty carriages formed in procession behind the hearse, which, following Calle Lima, turned down Calle Rivadavia, till it reached the principal entrance to the Cathedral. Here the coffin was lowered and taken inside the Cathedral, and after a short service was chaunted, it was replaced in the hearse. The procession then moved again from the Cathedral door, the mourners and their friends occupying their places in the carriages in the following order:—

THE HEARSE.

Five Mourning Carriages,
The President's coach, drawn by four horses,
The Governor's coach, drawn by four horses,
The Members of the National Cabinet,
The Members of Congress.
The Members of the Provincial Legislature,
&c., &c., &c.

Never, since the funeral of General Lavalle, have the streets of B. Ayres witnessed a funeral so imposing or better attended. Not less than 450 carriages were present, and the whole of the traffic in the streets where the funeral 'cortege' passed was suspended for a considerable time.

The 'cortege' went up Calle Rivadavia as far as Florida, where it turned, and, crossing the Plaza del Retiro, proceeded to the Recoleta.

As soon as the coffin had been placed in its last resting-place several speeches were delivered; but owing to the lateness at which this imposing ceremony was over we can only reproduce here the words spoken by Pres. Sarmiento, which were as follows:—

Fellow citizens:

It is my mournful duty to tribute, in the name of the Argentine people, the posthumous honors to one of the most noble citizens of the Republic.

Rich as our history is in characters that reassume in a picture embracing a whole generation all the phases of human society, from the cruel barbarism that surrounded its cradle, to the refined wisdom produced by the experience of centuries, the venerable Alsina, amidst terrible shadows, and the brilliant displays of genius, stands forth as the latent expression of that patriotism cast in the ancient mould which has created the noble figures of an Aristides or a Cato.

To the realisation of a beau ideal of republican institutions, which has been the idol of his lengthened life, he has devoted all the store of disinterestedness, probity, and patriotism with which he was so largely endowed, adorning such manifold virtues with the sweetness of character, the candid honesty of purpose, and the absence of all malevolence, which are the almost inseparable appendages of earnest good faith, in the hour of political or religious effervescence. We seem yet to be listening to that solemn voice which filled the Chamber, modulated by the passion for good, never by anger, always imbued with the emotion which is betrayed by the paternal feeling or by patriotism, which is the filial affection of robust children towards their mighty mother.

A Senator yesterday, a convention-ist a while ago, Minister, twice a Governor, Dr. Valentin Alsina has breathed his last innocent of all personal ambition, accepting public posts as the watchman who stands on the prow of the ship exposed to the inclemency of the storm to look out for danger, and readily retiring from the highest post as if anxious to show his diffidence by making room for those who thought that by their eagerness they displayed higher capacity or greater patriotism.

His disinterestedness is attested by forty years passed in exile, and by public employments whose intervals show the wisdom of those who do not abandon themselves altogether to the generous impulses of patriotism. An unselfishness almost stoic is the characteristic feature of the generation of patriots who have preceded us, and in our primitive caudillos and tyrants, avarice was not the passion that blackened most their acts. They were cruel, harsh, and poor like ancient Spartans.

Alsina has died wearing the senatorial toga and thus made practical the title of Father of the country which his long and loyal services had secured for him. Only a day or two ago he was planning that he might be carried to the Senate House to give with his dying voice a vote in favor of the project for importing special professors of sciences, in order to widen the sphere of public instruction. Several years ago, in the long hours of poetic expectation of exile, I heard him express this same idea as part of a program, and to see it realized on his dying bed, must have made tranquil his final farewell, in the belief that he left on a good road the republic which he loved, as generous souls can only love, clothing with their own moral beauty the beloved object. If this is yet an illusion, if the prism of our desires paints near to us horizons yet far from our sight, poor and innocent old man, death has surprised thee in a propitious historic moment, in which the Republic sails tranquilly, without the possibility of foreseeing from what point the storm will come. Our ancient statesmen are to be pitied. Rivadavia expelled like Alcibiades, and living in the land of his enemies, saw, as nobody did, his mother country fallen under the feet of savage tyranny, without a hope or the means of saving it.

You know how Alsina appeared at the Argentine bar, as the defender of Colonel Rojas whom he saved from an error of justice, only to see him fall shortly afterwards the first victim of terror, because his list of services betrayed in him another Marius.

In the young advocate the tyrant saw another Cicero, and even before seizing power he had placed his name at the head of the list of proscriptions.

Then he escaped from the Ponton by the help of his wife who among us has realized the type of the Roman matron, and proceeded to the Gibraltar of that struggle, a Trojan one for its duration, to lay hold of the pen which fell from the hand of Florencio Varela barbarously assassinated by the tyrant and concluded the newspaper article already begun whose motto he and we all so frequently repeated, "Eternal Death to the Tyrant."

This is the first page and the prologue of a long life. There are now no tyrants, and the venerable patriot sleeps in peace, as the laborer rests from his rude daily task when he sees the sun setting and tinging for a few minutes the distant horizon with its purple rays. May the earth be light upon thee, virtuous, honest, venerable patriot, SENATOR VALENTIN ALSINA!

THE NEW MUNICIPALITY.

The newly elected Corporation of this good city of Buenos Ayres have a tolerably heavy task before them, ere they bring it, as far as appertains to their jurisdiction, to a state at all commensurate with its wealth and importance, or its standing, as the metropolis of such a vast country. The task, as we have said, is an onerous one, but, although it is not to be expected that our civic authorities can, even under the guidance of so energetic a chief as their present president, Dr. Roque Perez, accomplish at once any very extraordinary feats in the way of reforming the many existing abuses, yet it is probable that we shall have some remarkable changes and improvements under the new regime.

We trust that too much will not be attempted, and that the new Corporation broom will confine itself at first to a clean sweeping away of those abuses which are a disgrace to the metropolis, leaving minor ones, and they are also numerous, for a future period and a more favorable state of the municipal pocket. Foremost amongst the much needed reforms is the proper paving of the streets and the adoption of a system of drainage. If we could only secure these, we could afford to wait for the others.

The inhabitants of Buenos Ayres have under their houses and their streets, a perpetual focus of infection in consequence of the cesspool system which in defiance of every sanitar, principle has been allowed to exist so long, and which we must continue to tolerate 'nolens volens' till we can get drainage works into operation. The frightful epidemic that so lately plunged the country into consternation and mourning would never have attained the dimensions it did in the metropolis but for the existence of this cesspool system.

A European landing here on a wet day sees our throughfares changed into roaring torrents in which men and horses are not so unfrequently drowned; he is told that many are of opinion that the absence of drainage is an advantage, as this periodical scouring of the streets is the only cleaning they ever get, and it is cheaper and costs less trouble to let our streets do duty for sewers. When the waters subside a glance at the pavement is afforded him, and he no longer wonders why such wholesale washing is looked on as necessary.

Well might H. R. H. the Comte D'Eu on his late visit declare, that the city was a fine one but that the pavement was execrable.

No city in the world could or would show such a state of things. It is not only the inconvenience, the danger to passengers, horses, and vehicles, and its unsightliness; but the health of the people is again in question, from the impossibility of keeping streets so paved clean. Pools of stagnant rain water and piles of dirt are to be found rotting in the sun, spreading miasma and disease in many fine thoroughfares, but a short distance from the centre. No vasura cart system can, unaided, and having to deal with streets like ours, keep the city in the state required by health.

Let the attention of the new Corporation be at once and seriously directed to carrying out both these vital reforms.

We have now, we may say, an efficient system of waterworks, and the vast benefit that such will prove to the population, when in full working order, with a sufficient number of public fountains for the wants of the poor, will gradually make itself apparent in the death rate returns.

The present system of slaughtering for the markets also calls loudly for reform; it is a perpetual menace to the health of the people. The markets, too, although much improved, in comparison with former times, are far from being what they ought, and require a tighter hand held over them.

The inspection of the dwellings of the poor, the prevention of overcrowding, and the sale of adulterated and sometimes poisonous articles of food and drink, these, and the supervision of a hundred other matters vitally affecting the health and well-being of the inhabitants, it is the first duty of the new corporation to initiate or see carried out more efficiently than at present.

We are aware that contracts have been mooted for some and actually made for carrying out others of the measures we have referred to; but, with the exception of Mr. Coghlan's waterworks, we have got but little in the way of genuine or permanent improvement in matters pertaining to municipal jurisdiction.

It is very hard to come at a correct estimate of the state of the municipal purse. An immense revenue is yearly paid into the city treasury, yet how to raise the wind in order to give their ideas effect is, we believe, just at present the principal subject occupying the attention of the municipal body.

The credit of the municipality is good, the new President is an able business man, and has some energetic colleagues, and the want of funds should not, nor do we think will, be the cause of disappointing the hopes which the citizens entertain of a radical change for the better in the administration of city affairs under the new regime.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The Wassimon, from Rio, arrived on Thursday at Montevideo. She brings dates from London and Paris to 5th ult., and from Lisbon to 8th, brought from Europe by the Donati, which arrived in Rio on the 29th ult.

The Irish Church Bill had received the royal assent and is now law. There is still much agitation respecting it, and meetings have been held in some parts of Ireland, chiefly promoted by the Protestant clergy. Parliament was not expected to be prorogued before the 11th of last month, so many were the private and public measures of importance which it is deemed advisable to pass or advance a stage before the House adjourns for the long vacation. Mr. Gladstone had resumed his place in the House of Commons, but is said to be greatly shaken by his late illness, which his medical advisers consider to have been brought on by the anxieties inseparable from the framing and discussion of the great question he has so triumphantly carried through Parliament.

The bill authorising the Government to purchase and work the telegraph lines has passed the third reading in the House of Commons.

On the 2nd ult. the French Senate commenced its sittings under the presidency of M. Rouher. Prince Napoleon was present. The 'Senatus Consultum,' composed of twelve principal articles, was read, after which Mons. Rouher addressed the Senate. In the course of his speech, the President said that no sovereign had ever followed more closely the manifestations of public opinion, and pointed, in support of his assertion, to the many liberal transformations the Imperial system had undergone. He also said that political science consists in adopting the measures approved by public opinion, and that the Emperor, above all others, wishes to pursue this line of conduct. Public opinion in France is undergoing a reaction in favor of the Emperor, as it is now seen that the reforms promised by him and submitted to the Senate are genuine, and not a mere makeshift, as was at first supposed. In high political circles the present movement is looked on as a genuine restoration of the system of parliamentary government. It is also said that the Corps Legislatif will be at once dissolved, and that many of the prefects and the sub-prefects throughout the departments will be replaced by new men. It is believed in Paris that, on the promulgation of the 'Senatus Consultum,' the Emperor will proclaim a general political amnesty.

The Carlists are said to be getting the worst of it in Spain. A great many of their bands have been captured or dispersed, and many of those taken with arms in their hands have been shot.

The Government has called on the Archbishops and Bishops to publish pastorals calling on all the clergy under their charge to yield obedience to the constituted authorities, and to send in to Government, within eight days, the names of those priests who have left their parishes to support the cause of Don Carlos. In the provinces, many of the inferior clergy have joined the Carlist bands as officers, and for this the Government calls on the ecclesiastical authorities to deprive them of their right to preach or hear confessions.

The royalist and republican organs of the press continue to wage furious war in support of their different principles.

Don Carlos was for a short time on the Spanish side of the frontier; but, according to the French press, which is in many respects better informed on Spanish affairs than its colleagues in the Peninsula, he has, fearing for his personal safety, re-entered France. It is now generally supposed that he has ordered his partizans to disperse, and that they will do so in any case, being disheartened by the want of firmness exhibited by their leader.

The political news from the United States is not of importance.

The United States Government continued to act vigorously against the Cuban fillibusters. The capture of the last batch puts an end, it is said, to any hopes of future aid being sent to the revolutionists in Cuba from the States.

Trade is dull in general on the Continent of Europe, this being an almost universal holiday season.

The Prince and Princess of Wales were continuing their tour through Germany under the incognito of the Baron and Baroness Renfrew, great preparations were nevertheless made to receive them in many of the towns through which they passed.

Mr. Gladstone's health is rapidly improving, a stay of a few days at Chiselhurst had greatly restored him.

It is remarked that the influx of strangers to Paris this year is very much below the average, though every one is or should be travelling who can afford; it the political excitement still existing throughout France is said to be the cause of this, and many tourists have given Paris a wide berth this year.

A VOICE FROM THE INTERIOR.

Rosario, September 7.

The general depression in trade mentioned in my last, continues with little hope of improvement; indeed, if things get no worse before they mend, it will be a cause of joy to your numerous readers, and surprise, to your hard up correspondent. The lack of news as well as the other needful is notorious here, and will, I trust, excuse your correspondent for what might otherwise appear to your subscribers more fortunate in residing in sunnier climes, as uncalled for frankness after such inexcusable reticence.

Happily the prospect of the prompt termination of the 'never-ending Paraguayan war,' which served to drive your national securities down 5 or 10 per cent., has not had the least effect on our market, at least if I may judge by the same unerring source from which you derive your information—"La Bolsa de Comercio." Now for the last few weeks I have been carefully watching the board but can perceive no change in price of anything to report. Still if I go next door to the headquarters of your agents, they will give me the price current of all the goods in their store from the Daily or Weekly edition of your paper to a box of matches, and all the other merchants are alike obliging in their own way.

It is against this under-hand way of doing business, which would seem to have been born and bred in the people here, this clinging to old prejudices, which, with the vice so common in these countries, viz., inertia, has been pronounced by philosophers as the great bane of public progress and national advancement that the Siudical Committee have to fight. The learned men who compose that honorable body deserve the support and sympathies of all who sincerely desire the advancement of this town. Therefore, your correspondent does not withhold his humble mede of praise, and hesitates not to call on you and his readers to join him in wishing the initiators of so useful an institution every success. But let them remember the old motto, that Rome was not built in a day. A few days since the President wanted to resign, and assuredly the next thing we should have heard would have been the closing of the doors, for ever since its auspicious inauguration last March this able financier, who has so long steered his bark safely through political and monetary crises to the commanding position it now holds, has been the very life and soul of the Exchange. With patience and perseverance I have no doubt he will yet succeed in placing the establishment on a good footing.

The Government, as usual, is fast asleep; no effort is made for public good, though almost every branch of the administration requires reform. Until the advent of a new Governor, who will dedicate less of his time to the duties of his private speculations, we cannot hope for much amelioration in this particular. Since the revolution in 1857, there has been no freer place in the world than this: for, with the exception of levying taxes, the Government never interferes with the citizen, who has on every occasion to look out for himself, even when the police are about.

The port is pretty well filled with shipping, and where formerly one sea-going vessel entered in a month, we now have as many daily. One day last week the English schooner Chaunt entered from Altona, with a cargo of 9,191 casks and demijohns, also the Dutch barque Charles Kakl, from Cardiff, consigned to Lanuz, Asellano, & Co., with 350 tons of coal. The Custom House too shows signs of great activity; on the 1st inst. no less than $f.14,660 were paid out for subventions to the interior provinces.

Within the last half of the past month $f.630 was realised to the National Treasury by the issue of stamps.

The papers publish a call for the purchase of shares in a new coal mine said to have been discovered in the Alto Parana. The business, it is calculated, would give good returns, as with twenty-five workmen the Empresario states to have raised from fifty to eighty tons daily. Where has it gone to? will be the natural question of intending investors.

The mails from the interior report nothing new in our fellow provinces. From the other side of the Andes we hear of the exploration of Rio Imperial, successfully accomplished by Don Leoncio Senoreli. The health of Santiago could not be worse, although the small-pox has happily notably diminished.

Several other scarcely less fatal scourges have broken out. All the hospitals are full. Lung disease is most prevalent among adults, whilst hooping cough and croop carry off numbers of children.

The 'West Coast Mail' anticipated a schism among the dissenters of Valparaiso. The cause of the misunderstanding is not made known to the public, but an early day had been named for a conference.

I cannot join your colleague in his fears of adding another sect into which the human family is divided, as in all probability His Lordship the Bishop of Honolula would arrange the difficulty on his arrival there on his way to his island diocese.

There is a project for the contraction of a loan either foreign or internal to the amount of four millions of dollars, with an amortization of 2 per cent per annum.

From Peru there is little worthy of note. The Cerro San Matias has recently been brought into considerable notice by an expedition of some thirty Americans who state that this spot is more auriferous than any part of California. They penetrated a good way into the country, but failed to prove the truth of their theory.

On the 15th July Dr. Don Lorenzo Montufar presented his credentials as Minister Plenipotentiary for the Republic of San Salvador.

The railway from Pisco to Ica was inaugurated by the President and Ministers. Three proposals have been presented for the construction of the Transatlantic Railway, to run from Lima to Oroya. The Chilian Peabody, Sr. Meiggs, will probably receive the contract.

Latest advices from Cuba, 'via' West Coast, report both armies suffering much from disease. This, coupled with the heavy rains, had for a time paralysed active operations on both sides. By last accounts a terrible conflict took place over a convoy of provisions belonging to the insurgents. The Spaniards endeavored to capture the train, but, although reinforced, were driven back.

Important news are hourly expected from Paraguay, and should, as many expect, Lopez be taken, and the war concluded, I shall let you know by telegraph.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The death of Don Valentin Alsina has plunged the city, we may say, in universal mourning. One of the most remarkable, disinterested, and generally popular amongst the public men of his day, he has expired at a ripe old age, leaving behind him as his best epitaph, a name that will live in the hearts of the present, and be offered to succeeding generations of Argentines, as an example of what a good and patriotic citizen should be in every relation of life. To his country, the death of this distinguished man is a loss that will long be felt; and we sympathise with the nation and his family on the sad event, so widely deplored. In another column we give a short biographical sketch of the deceased Senator, and a full description of the funeral ceremonies, which took place yesterday afternoon. The city wore on yesterday an aspect of gloom, the flags n the different public buildings, and of the vessels in port, were all flying half-mast, and it was manifest to all that a great and good citizen had passed away from amongst us.

The news from Europe per Donati, which we publish in another column, is two days later than that of the City of Buenos Ayres, but is not of importance, if we except the radical changes being made in the French Constitution by the reforms granted by the Emperor Napoleon. It is now seen that these measures are genuine, and must have the most important influence on the future destinies of the French Empire.

From Montevideo there is nothing important. The Flying Squadron is the great event of the day. We expect to give our readers a description of the vessels in our next issue. We publish to-day a letter in reference to the reception given by Admiral Hornby to the Emperor of Brazil at Rio on his visit to the Squadron; the error of our correspondent was patent, and we took care to correct it in a subsequent issue; we are, however, equally indebted to Cabral for his communication.

The Kepler arrived in Bahia on the 20th ult., on her homeward voyage. All well on board.

The extraordinary fall in the rivers Parana and Uruguay is attracting much attention. The Guardia Nacional, the Guarani, two Brazilian steamers, and a host of smaller vessels are aground at different points up the river, which still continues to fall; in the Goya pass there is at present a depth of only ten feet of water.

To-morrow the Royal Mail steamer Laplace leaves for Liverpool. Captain Hairby takes home, we believe, some of the Paraguayan refugees, consisting chiefly of the women and children; most of the men, being tradesmen, prefer remaining here, in hopes of finding employment. We have printed a special supplementary sheet, containing the several tales of woe of these poor people. It will be sent round in the paper to subscribers, and afterwards on sale at the kiosk in Plaza Victoria.

To-day being the feast of the Nativity of the blessed Virgin, is a strict holiday, consequently there will be no paper to-morrow, but should any particular news come in from Paraguay or elsewhere, we will strike off a small bulletin, which our friend Captain Hairby has promised to carry with the mail to Europe.

Mr. N. de la Riestra leaves London to-morrow the 8th of September, bound to Southampton en route for Buenos Ayres, per steamer of the 9th.

Mons. D'Hote of the French Theatre, for whom a benefit was given here some months ago by his theatrical colleagues, has, we regret to hear, arrived in Paris in a state of insanity. This melancholy fact sets at rest the idle rumors prevalent at the time respecting his illness.

It is a remarkable tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Valentin Alsina, whose loss the country to-day deplores, that, notwithstanding the many lucrative and influential posts he held in the course of his varied career, he died with but a very small fortune. It is an additional title to the respect of posterity.

We find by the provincial papers that the drought still continues in the upper provinces; it is particularly severe in Cordoba, where the cattle are represented as suffering severely from its effects.

There is a good deal of activity being manifested in a business way at present in Chascomus. The graserias are doing a good business, and judging from the aspect of things, residents say that the effects of the low prices and general depression of the last two years have not been as severely felt there as in other parts of the camp. We have been promised a general resume of affairs in that quarter by a well-known resident.

Don Eduardo Madero the contractor for the construction of the port and docks in this city approved some months ago by the national Congress has addressed a manifesto to the National Senators and Provincial Deputies on the subject of his scheme, now a bone of contention between the Legislatures. Sr. Madero declares the data set forth by the Provincial Minister in reference to the advantages to be derived by the Province from the construction of the port to be entirely incorrect. We have not space at present for commenting on the puzzling state of this vexed question, but will refer to it in detail in a day or so. "It is a very petty quarrel as it stands."

We understand it has been decided to adopt Pitman's system of stenography, as applied to the Spanish language by Mr. Parody, in the new class of this art about being established in the National College. Mr. Parody who has been appointed to take charge of the class, has we believe devoted many years to perfecting its application to Spanish. The system is that chiefly used in England.

We distribute to-day to our subscribers gratis a supplementary sheet containing exclusively the narratives recently published by us, of some of the English sufferers in Paraguay. It will be on sale at our office for the general public on to-morrow.

We think it right to inform playgoers that Madame Ristori will leave Buenos Ayres about the middle of October, so that the number of representations she will give cannot be very numerous, Pia de Tolomei was announced for last night.

The oppressive heat on Monday was followed by a thunderstorm and heavy rain at midnight, the streets in the higher quarters of the town soon offered the spectacle of roaring torrents, but we have not heard of any damage being done beyond the flooding of a few ground floors in some places.

The ball at the Coliseum in favor of the 'Invalidos,' announced for last night, had an additional attraction imparted to it by the rumor that the Marchioness de Grillo would be present.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the Independence of Brazil. We inadvertently omitted to congratulate our Brazilian fellow-citizens on an occasion fraught for them with so many glorious memories. We trust they will now allow us to repair the omission, and accept our felicitations on their national festival.

Our colleague, "El Rio de la Plata," devotes a certain portion of its back sheet to the publishing of the names and addresses of business houses in "Directory form." The idea is a very good one, and will be of service to the public while we are getting up the second edition of our Handbook, which we mean to make a Buenos Ayreau 'Thom' in every respect.

Official letters to the Minister of Finance state that Argentine Bonds are gradually coming more into favor in the London market, as an investment, scarcely a day passes without important transactions taking place in them.

The telegraph line between Rio Grande del Sul and Rio de Janeiro is now complete. The news of the last victories in Paraguay was sent to the Brazilian capital by this means.

CAMP BRIDGES.

Sept. 7, 1869.

To the Editors of the "Standard."

Gentlemen,

As your columns are ever open to all matters of progress, may I request a corner to call the attention of the Government to the great want there exists for a bridge across the Arrecifes river, between the town of Arrecifes and the River Paraná. It is strange, gentlemen, that in this country of progress we talk of railways to Dolores, Chile—nay, to the moon, if possible, whilst in this very province we cross dangerous rivers in 'balsas,' 35 leagues from the Plaza Victoria, just as the Indians did a century ago. I have observed from time to time that the attention of the Municipalities of the various districts near this river has been called to this great necessity, but evidently in vain, as nothing has been done. $25,000 is coolly handed to a man to go up in a balloon: or $50,000 is lavished with equal coolness on the receipt of some 'bola' from Paraguay—but nothing is done for the unfortunate campero, who has to suffer and smile.

The fact is that the Arrecifes is notoriously the most dangerous river in the province, being quite impassable Yet, gentlemen, you will scarcely believe that for a distance of fourteen leagues there is not a single bridge or pass of any description, the only means of passing horses or sheep being by swimming, etc., which sometimes cost enormous labor and time, as much as three days being spent in fruitless endeavors to get sheep into the water. Should an unfortunate sheepfarmer get to the river when it is high, he may make up his mind to stop there for a week at least. At a very small outlay, say $50,000, a neat bridge could be erected at any suitable point, the Paso de Andrada being the most convenient for all parties. In the present state of things the rich fattening camps of San Pedro are completely shut out from Buenos Ayres, as no tropero can enter to load wool, nor can a butcher part sheep there, unless he wishes to go around by Arrecifes; hence, estancieros have to take advantage of the saladero in the neighbouring town.

I beg respectfully to call the attention of his Excellency President Sarmiento to this matter, as I know he is a constant reader of the "Standard." If he makes inquiries from our worthy Governor Castro, he will discover the truth of these remarks. Therefore, I hope this will be the last time an appeal may be made on this hideous abuse.

Yours truly,

AN ESTANCIERO.

"THE FLYING SQUADRON."

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

In your issue of Saturday I see a letter from your correspondent in this city, wherein it is stated that the Emperor of Brazil was coolly received on board the British Flying Squadron at Rio, as he partook of a "glass of water" only, offered him by Admiral Hornby, and your correspondent supposes that "this is either a foolish joke or malicious invention on the part of the Brazilian papers."

The matter admits of the simplest explanation possible, and the 'canard' can only be ascribed to a want of knowledge of the Portuguese language on the part of your correspondent in Montevideo, when translating from the Rio papers, as the Brazilian or Portuguese name for a luncheon is "copa de agua," and the Rio papers simply state that his Imperial Majesty "condescended to accept a luncheon provided for him by Admiral Hornby.

This explanation should correct any bad impression formed by reading the paragraphs in last Saturday's "Standard."

Yours truly,

CABRAL.

CHILE.

DEATH OF AN IRISH RESIDENT.

The Valparaiso papers have requested us to publish the following extract:

Thomas Manahan.

The most painful duty which has ever fallen to the lot of the writer in this western world is the present—to record the death of his beloved friend and fellow-countryman, Thomas Manahan, of the commercial firm of Messrs Dealy and Manahan, at this port.

On the morning of the 13th inst., after a brief illness, this worthy son of Erin departed this life. "Requiescat in pace!"

From the contagion of the world's slow stain
He now hath passed!

His remains were accompanied to the Roman Catholic Cemetery of this city by a very large number of friends, both native and foreign, and it may not be inopportune here to tender our most sincere thanks to our eloquent and worthy priest, the Rev. Dr. Casanova, for his great kindness in specially performing the funeral service. His truly Christian oration, on whom he properly styled "este digno hijo de la gloriosa Erin," was most affecting.

The writer is ignorant of the precise birthplace of Thomas Manahan, but he feels confident it is close to the town of Newry, in the county Louth. It is about 12 years since Thomas Manahan arrived in Chile from the United States, and though he always occupied himself in commercial pursuits, he was, notwithstanding, more inclined to literature. However, up to his death, he wrote nothing which was intended to live, but we rarely met with one who read so extensively or thought so profoundly as Thomas Manahan.—But alas! though "este digno hijo de la gloriosa Erin" sighed and sighed for the fair land of his birth, yet his ashes lie unsheltered by the shamrock of Erin.

ON 'CHANGE.

September 7, 1869.

Patacons	25
Sovereigns	122½
Ounces	490
National Bonds	61½

This was a dull day on the Bolsa; but few merchants attended, owing to the general desir to be present at the funeral of the late Don Valentin Alsina.

National Bonds remain at 61⅛ for the 30th inst. The business of the day only amounted to 168,000, sold for different dates. Speculators seem to content themselves with watching the market.

It is considered of great importance, as to the future value of these securities, whether Congress will authorise an emission or not, for it is known that the recent speculation could only obtain two and a half millions of Bonds, which amount, if there is no further emission, will be reduced by amortisations and investments to little over one and a half millions in the space of the next 12 months.

There are parties willing to pay 63 for the 31st December, if no emission is allowed by Congress this session.

Argentine Bank shares to-day realised five per cent. premium. Caja de Credito was sold at par.

Exchange done at 48⅜ and 49; the bulk passed has been at the latter quotation: on France 5·10 to 5·15 is the rate. Nothing done on Rio de Janeiro.

It is not yet known whether Saturday the 11th will be a holiday; there will be no Bolsa on the 15th inst, and the 17th anniversary of Pavon may also be declared a holiday.

September 7.

SOONER OR LATER, a neglected Cold will develop a constant Cough, Shortness of Breath, Failing Strength, and Wasting of Flesh—the avant couriers of Consumption. In some instances the same cause will produce Bronchitis, a disease of the branches of the windpipe. In all affections of the Pulmonary Organs, as well as in Bronchial Affections, Dr. Jayne's Expectorant is both a palliative and a curative, as the testimony of thousands, and its world wide reputation attests; while in Coughs and Colds it acts speedily, and when taken according to directions, promptly removes them. Why not give this standard remedy an immediate trial? Sold by all Druggists.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artizans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling. in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositers can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourt—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver. the depositor, if he wished can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

BISHOP'S GRANULAR EFFERVESCENT CITRATE or MAGNESIA,
Introduced and prepared by
ALFRED BISHOP,
Manufacturing Chemist,
17 & 18 SPECK'S FIELDS, MILE END NEW TOWN, LONDON.

This perfectly white and delicately clean granulated preparation possesses remarkable effervescent qualities, and far surpasses the ordinary Seidlitz Powder in its cooling, refreshing, and mild aperient properties, as well as in its flavor as a saline draught. It is particularly well adapted for women and young children, on account of its most agreeable flavor and mild effect.

N.B. The genuine has the name of BISHOP upon the Bottle, also the Name and Trade Mark upon the Label, and is sold in convenient sizes, and secured in so perfect a manner that it may be shipped with safety to any part of the world.

Manufacturer also of Granulated and Effervescent Carbonate of Iron, Citrate of Iron Citrate of Quinine, Citrate of Quinine and Iron Carbonate of Lithia in Tubes, Citrate of Lithia, Vichy Salt, Seidlitz Mixture, and all other Granulated Preparations.

IN CHANCERY.—CAUTION.—BISHOP'S GRANULAR EFFERVESCENT CITATE OF MAGNESIA.—Mr. Bishop, having discovered that the Label which he has used for the last five years was being imitated, recently applied to the Court of Chancery for an Injunction to restrain such imitation. The Injunction was immediately granted, and the Defendant was ordered to pay all Mr. Bishop's Costs and destroy the Labels complained of.

Also, BISHOP'S NEW REMEDY for SEA-SICKNESS, should be in the hands of every person travelling by Sea. 77,26p,ft.j1869

BREAKFAST—A SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT.

The 'Civil Service Gazette' has the following interesting remarks:—"There are very few simple articles of food which can boast so many valuable and important dietary properties as cocoa. While acting on the nerves as a gentle stimulant it provides the body with some of the purest elements of nutrition, and at the same time corrects and invigorates the action of the digestive organs. These beneficial effects depend in a great measure upon the manner of its preparation, but of late years such close attention has been given to the growth and treatment of cocoa, that there is no difficulty in securing it with every useful quality fully developed. The singular success which Mr. Epps attained by his homœopathic preparation of cocoa has never been surpassed by any experimentalist. Far and wide the reputation of Epp's Cocoa has spread by the simple force of its own extraordinary merits. Medical men of all shades of opinion have agreed in recommending it as the safest and most beneficial article of diet for persons of weak constitutions. This superiority of a particular mode of preparation over all others is a remarkable proof of the great results to be obtained from little causes. By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and properly nourished system. 85: 36p, f,jy1869

THE PERFECTION OF PREPARED COCOA
Maravilla Cocoa.

Sole Proprietors,
TAYLOR, BROTHERS, London.

The Cocoa [or Cacao] of Maravilla, is the true Theobroma of Linnæus. Cocoa is indigenous to South America, of which Maravilla is a favored portion. Taylor Brothers having secured the exclusive supply of this unrivalled Cocoa, have, by the skilful application of their soluble principle and elaborate machinery, produced what is so undeniably the perfection of prepared Cocoa, that it has not only secured the preference of homœpaths and cocoa-drinkers generally, but many who had hitherto not found any preparation to suit them, have, after one trial, adopted the Maravilla Cocoa as their constant beverage for breakfast, luncheon, &c.

"A SUCCESS UNPRECEDENTED,"
See following Extract from the 'Globe' of May 14, 1868:—

"Various importers and manufacturers have attempted to attain a reputation for their prepared Cocoas, but we doubt whether any thorough success had been achieved until Messrs. Taylor Brothers discovered the extraordinary quality of 'Maravilla' Cocoa. Adopting their perfect system of preparation to this finest of all species of the Theobroma, they have produced an article which supersedes every other Cocoa in the market. Entire solubility, a delicate aroma, and a rare concentration of the purest elements of nutrition, distinguish the Maravilla Cocoa above all others. For Homœpaths and invalids we could not recommend a more agreeable or valuable beverage.

Sold in packets only by all Grocers, of whom also may be had Taylor Brothers' Original Homœopathic Cocoa and Soluble Chocolate.

"A Handbook of the River Plate," by Messrs. M. G. and E. T. Mulhall, the editors of the "Buenos Ayres Standard," gives the most practical and recent account yet furnished of those countries, comprising Buenos Ayres, the Upper Provinces, Banda Oriental, and Paraguay. It contains particulars of the various land grants for European Emigrants, the projects and concessions for public works, the progress and prospects of mining industry, statistics of the foreign population, Customs' duties, moneys, weights, &c., and instructions to emigrants, together with all the leading points most useful to persons contemplating either a business visit or a permanent settlement in these regions.—Times Money Article, June 7th.

All the Buenos Ayrean press have pronounced a most favorable judgment on this book, and we can vouch for the fact, that in respect to the order and arrangement of the materials, there is no book of its kind in South America to be compared to it.—Nacional.

We confess that the "Handbook of the River Plate" is the best book of this kind ever written about these countries.—Deutsche Zeitung.

"Handbook of the River Plate." By M. G. and E. T. Mulhall.—To those who purpose emigrating to the countries lying on the River Plate this book will be found of great value. It is the work of a citizen of Buenos Ayres, and appears to be quite full and trustworthy. The Argentine Republic, Republic of Uruguay, and Paraguay are described, their chief cities, agricultural and other resources, stated, and the chances for immigrants fairly told. The book throughout contains much information of importance. In spite of domestic and foreign wars, it is pleasant to learn that the number of immigrants into the Argentine Confederation increased from 4,658 in 1858 to 23,500 in 1867. The material wealth of the countries is also increasing with rapidity, except, probably, in Paraguay, where the war is waging. Altogether this book gives us a better idea of the River Plate Republics than any other recent publication does.—New York Herald.

Everything relating to the country, and that can satisfy the enthusiasm of the merchant, farmer, politician, or philosopher, is to be found in this work, which we hesitate not to recommend as one of the best that ever appeared in this country, and which, considering the present industrial and intellectual movement, is indispensable, even though it has to be translated.—La Republica.

The book is useful, interesting, and full of information, with commercial and geographical statistics. It is written evidently for the special use of emigrants from England and North America, and will prove of great value to the country by making known in foreign parts the liberal system of our public institutions.—Revista de Buenos Ayres.

We have gone through this elaborate compilation with great interest, and certainly whoever desire to make themselves acquainted with Argentine history, whether ancient or modern, have only to study this admirable guide. The amount of information collected is something wonderful. It could only have been accomplished by great labour and at a heavy cost, and, we trust, the public spirit evinced by Messrs. Mulhall will be amply rewarded. To those who contemplate a visit to the River Plate, or a settlement in Argentine territory, the details given in this "Handbook" are invaluable.—London and River Plate Mail.

The Editors of the "Standard" in Buenos Ayres have published in English an excellent 'guide-book' which contains the fullest information about that country, viz., the public institutions, laws, tariffs, banks, historical summary, form of Government, statistics, estancias, &c. For persons either visiting the River Plate, or resident there, this work offers every class of practical and useful information. It is on sale at the English book store, Rua Nova do Carmo. Journal of Lisbon.

I beg you will put down the Government of Entre Rios for 200 copies, and myself for 100, to be distributed gratis among reading-rooms in Europe.—Letter from General Urquiza.

President Sarmiento has taken 100 copies, and sent 50 to the Argentine Minister at Washington, for some of the principal public libraries in the United States.

Every one who has turned over the pages of this work, will join us in appreciating its importance for the advancement of the country. Nothing has escaped the intelligent research of the authors.—Nacion Argentina.

The Messrs. Mulhall have rendered a signal service to these countries by a labor like the present, which will make the River Plate better known abroad.—La Tribuna (Montevideo.)

A cheap edition, comprising the whole of Section A. and other chapters, with an appendix (the laws of the country) making in all a book of 330 pages, is offered at the above price.

The materials of which it treats, and the known talent of the Authors, are a sufficient guarantee to me of how valuable this book will be to the country.—Letter from the Prime Minister.

A BOUQUET

VIOLETS and WATER LILIES,

Exhale an exquisite fragrance, agreeable to the most fastidious, but in the Florida Water of Murray and Lanman, it is not to these two floral beauties alone that we are confined; in it we have the full fragrance of a whole bouquet of blooming tropic flowers.

MOSS-ROSE and JASMIN,

Exquisite in their odors, are yet poor by comparison with the clouds of incense that arise from Murray and Lanman's Florida Water, so justly styled "The Queen of Floral Perfumes."

ORANGE FLOWERS and HONEY-SUCKLE,

Delightful in the pure delicacy of their sweet breath, but faint and fading when compared with the refreshing and strengthening perfume of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water so welcome in the sick-room.

DAISIES and BUTTERCUPS,

Nature's every-day perfumes, exhaling floral incense familiar to us all, but from which we turn eagerly away to the more refined delicacy of fragrance of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water.

LAVENDER and MAGNIOLIAS,

Rich with heavy perfume, but not invigorating nor refreshing, and so sweet that the sense of smell soon cloys, and longs for the simple freshness of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water.

SWEET BRIAR and CLOVER BLOOM,

Bringing memories of country life, and exhaling a perfume pure and delicate, but lacking that uniformity and permanence, so marked a feature in Murray and Lanman's Florida Water

MIGNONETTE and DAFFODILS,

Of poetic celebrity, sweet and pleasant in the perfume, but still only the perfume of single flowers. In Murray and Lanman's Florida Water we have the combined fragrance of more than all these floral beauties. We have the unapproachable richness of the far-off tropic flowers made permanent, and giving justly to this exquisite Toilet-Water the title of

THE EVERLASTING PERFUME.

☞ Purchasers should be careful to ask for the "Florida Water," prepared by "Lanman and Kemp," New York, who are the sole proprietors of the genuine perfume.

For Sale by all respectable Druggists, Perfumers, and Fancy Goods Dealers.

The Times, of India, states "that the discovery of D. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a greater blessing to the human race than even the discovery of Vaccination.' This remedy is invaluable in the above diseases and is indispensable to Emigrants. Travellers and Families, a few doses being generally sufficient.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, December 31, 1864.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Extract from Medical Times, January 12, 1866:—"Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Consumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when all other medicines had failed."

It is necessary to warn the public against spurious imitations, which only bear the pirated name, and are deficient of the true properties of the only genuine, viz.:—Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S, as was proved before Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood, in the Court of Chancery, in the case of Brown v. Freeman, when Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera:—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of using it in all cases."

the Vice-Chancellor stated 'that the whole statement of
